What will we recall of the school year, '73-'74?

A golden man for a golden year

Mr. Herb Wickham

The tribute for the Silver Arrow's golden year could never be more apt than for a man who has worked behind the scenes for thirteen years at JHS, doing many, many things for the school that are too much taken for granted.

Herb Wickham has been teaching for eighteen years, thirteen of those at JHS. In those years he has done much of which few are aware. He instituted one of the first allied arts courses in the state of Missouri; has done much of the artwork for the band, the athletics program, the CTA banquets and programs and other school functions; and has supervised the prom for thirteen years, to name a few of his services rendered. He was finally recognized for all his endeavors in 1969 when named "Outstanding Young Educator" for that year.

The Silver Arrow honors its 50th volume to a teacher who has worked long and hard for the students of JHS. It is with pride, that the Silver Arrow dedicates its golden edition to Mr. Herb Wickham, a truly golden teacher.

*Mrs. Hartman makes
Silver Arrow golden*

For Mrs. Hartman, correct spelling is a must!

Yes it's a good idea, Mrs. Hartman, but why should YOU get to be the centerfold?

A true friend, Mrs. Hartman never laughs at the misfortune of others.

Mrs. Hartman blindly accepted the responsibility of Silver Arrow sponsor for '73 - '74, little realizing that she would have to put up with snappy kids, goofed - up deadlines, and a helpless staff. However, being the cool lady she is, she met all these obstacles and more with a level head and unrelenting devotion and responsibility. She has worked harder than anyone on the staff and has put in more time than any sponsor should have to. Indeed the '74 Silver Arrow is deeply in debt to Mrs. Hartman for all her hard work. And the golden edition gives a big thanks to Mrs. Sue Hartman, a very golden lady.

Loyalty and untiring energy - Mrs. Sue Hartman!

Reviewing Homecoming Week

The Queen and her court.

The beat goes on.

JHS's Third Annual Homecoming was one surging with activities. Spirit jars, "Sock it to Charleston" sticker day, a male sexy leg contest, and a pep assembly and parade aroused the student body to top speed.

Friday evening the team of 1943 was honored with a banquet in the cafeteria. Following the banquet, the "1943 Indians" attended the victory of the "1973 Indians" over the Charleston Bluejays, 17-14, bringing the week to its peak.

Saturday evening the Homecoming Dance was held in the Study Hall for the first time. Streamers of purple and pink highlighted the moment when Master of Ceremonies, Barry Stone announced that Pam Sneed was to be crowned Queen of the 1973 Homecoming festivities drawing to a close a week filled with school spirit.

Hey, where do you think you're going?

Jane McClary, Historian, reviews NHS scrapbook with our sponsor Mrs. Miller.

The '73-'74 NHS made a booming increase in active members from previous years. They had the largest active membership to date and had more males involved than ever before. Led by president, Judy Kies, the club strived to live up to their standards of "character, scholarship, leadership, and service".

Under the guiding hand of Mrs. Barbara Miller, sponsor, NHS members were kept busy this year helping elementary teachers with their classes, joining Student Council to start a Student Forum replacing the old Honor Seminar, and rewriting the old application forms for entrance into Honor Society. With all this, they still found time to sponsor a service project to better the school and host the annual Christmas Tea. Yes, the '73-'74 NHS proved to JHS that they would be a tough organization to get along without.

Our Student Body President
Barry Stone

As SBP, Stone made JHS "Rock"

Although the Student Body President's job is officially one of only presiding over the Student Council, it includes many other jobs. It includes picking committees, introducing assemblies, making speeches, being an ambassador for JHS, and being the general flunky around the office. Barry has all of the qualities to make him one of JHS's finest SBP's and definitely the "Rock" of JHS.

Barry likes to monkey around.

"... and these are your cups..."

Changing signs, filling the Coke machine, raising and lowering the flag, and making umpteen posters for events were among the many menial tasks left to the JHS work squad otherwise known as the Student Council. These 23 little power-horses under the reins of SBP Barry Stone performed many services for the students no other group in their right mind would attempt. Not only did they sponsor dances on their own but they co-sponsored two of the biggest dances, the Homecoming and the Silver Arrow. In one of their other activities, they gave the post office competition as they delivered valentines for students on Valentine's Day. And never a group to discard constructive criticism, the Council installed a Suggestion Box in order to give JHS students a bigger voice in student government.

But the Council did not work for JHS alone. They showed a want to better the community as seen in their Bundle of Joy drive for a Community Health Center. All this and more proved that the Student Council truly was the voice of JHS.

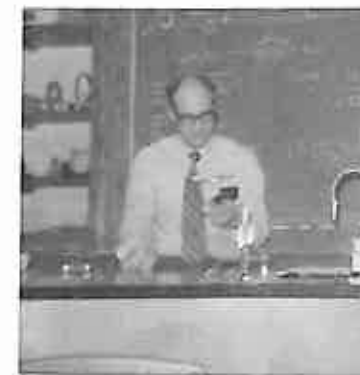

What are you smiling about?

Barb Lowes works hard on the Faculty Section.

The Silver Arrow Squad, led by Commander-in-Chief Sue Hartman and drilled by Captain Mike Dumey, slaved through many tortured hours to produce a good yearbook, and thanks to such a great leadership and excellent help from the lower ranks, the 1973-'74 Silver Arrow IS a success.

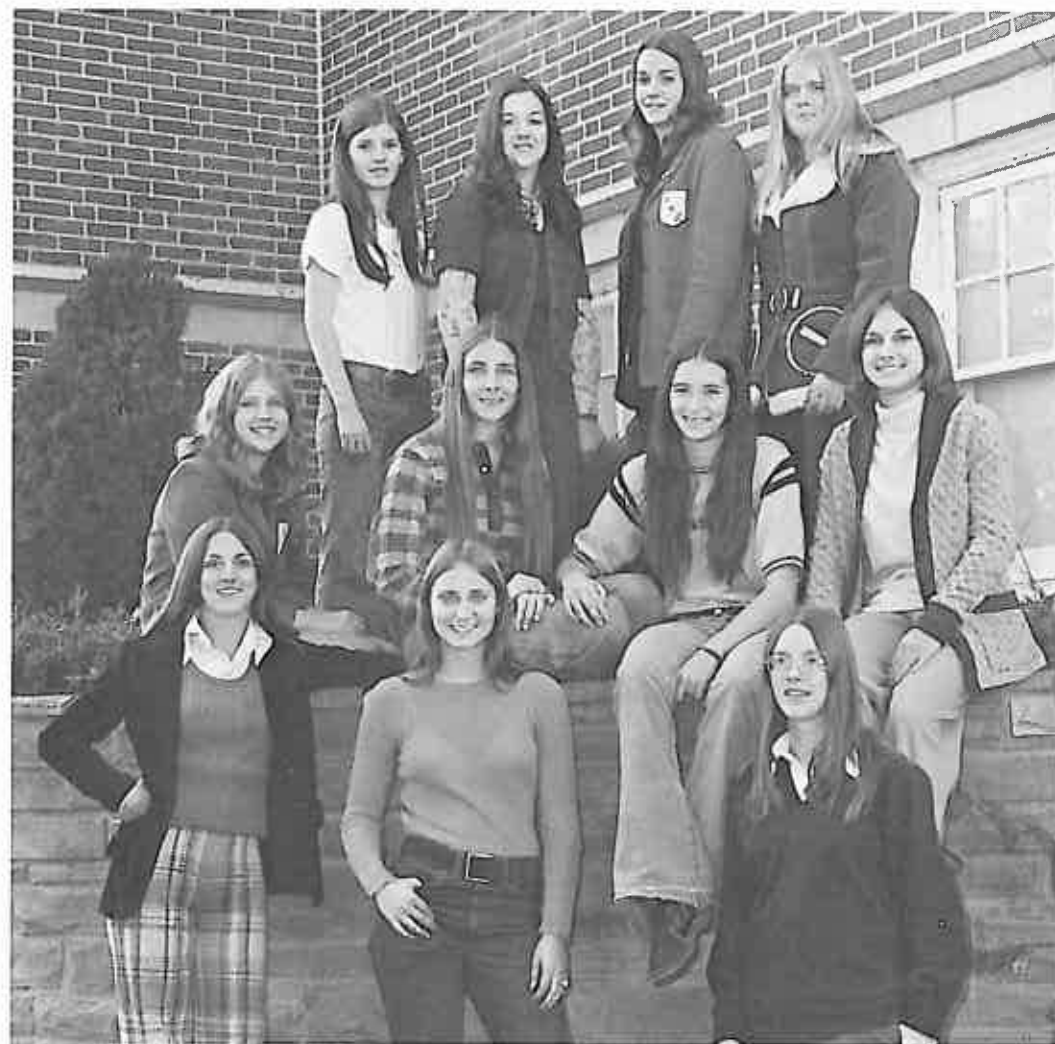

After sweating through frenzied deadlines and laughing behind the drill-master's back at lewd snapshots, the squad admitted that they's actually enjoyed the hard days and weeks, and even the long, boring basic training.

Even Commandant Nelson was drafted into the ranks, taking millions upon millions of pictures, uncomplaining, for the ever-demanding, ever-crabby yearbook squad.

In the end, it was the general agreement that the whole bloody mess was all worthwhile.

Squawler members work hard to meet deadlines.

Published tri-weekly, the Squawler provided JHS with an assortment of news items, feature stories, humorous school tales, and controversial editorials. Many hours of fact searching, editing, typing, writing, and rewriting went into the production of each issue. Assisting frustrated reporters, erratic editors, and tireless typists, Mrs. Davis competently guided the staff through a rewarding year. Leading the group was Editor-in-Chief, Brenda Grindstaff, who was backed up by the News Editor, Robin Smith; the Editorial Editor, Tara Thomas; the Social Editor, Randy Weiss; the Copy Editor, Jackie Rose; the Exchange Editor, Barbara Harris; and the Photographer, Bob Loos.

The 1973-74 Quill and Scroll Club proved to be one of the most active in the years since its organization at JHS. The club participated in various social activities as well as putting out the second annual Quill and Scroll Creative Writing Booklet. The club members showed not only their proficiency at writing but also displayed a certain expertise at falling gracefully on the skating rink floor and at devouring encountable slabs of steak at the Ponderosa. If it was not the most fruitful year for Quill and Scroll, it was certainly the most interesting.

'73 Marching Chiefs largest band EVER!

Backfield in motion.

Through snow, sleet, pouring rain, and perhaps a tornado or two, the 1973 Jackson Chiefs Marching Band pulled together to create many fine performances this marching season. The 210 members shouted, pushed, bullied, and sometimes (though rarely) kindly helped each other as they turned out a succession of varied and successful performances at S. E. Mo. University and Festus, as well as for the halftime performances at home games.

The band members chose as their officers; Scott Vangilder, pres.; Kim Call, V.-Pres.; and Jane Johnson, sec.-treas.

As usual, these performances were not created by divine revelation, but by the hard work and determination of the band's fearless (and you have to be!) leader, Mr. Nick Leist.

Senior Band members really appreciated that extra hour of band. During marching season, it gave them a rest after their morning struggle on the field. During the concert season, seniors enjoyed that extra hour of sleep given them by senior privilege. With all this newfound vigor, the band strove for perfection (or at least tried!). Mr. Nick Leist directed the band with tried patience and tireless energy. This was a major part of why the '73-'74 Senior Band was such a success.

Mixed Chorus Sings Sensationally

The school year is full of nerve-racking, as well as rewarding, times. This is also true of Mixed Chorus productions. The Chorus performed a Pop Concert, which included humorous songs and skits, "The Hanging of the Green," the Christmas concert, which featured several soloists and instrumentalists, and the Spring Concert. The hassle of the last-minute preparations was well worth the joy of the program finally being over. Without Mrs. Paul Kirk's strong leadership and finesse with the productions, and the ever-faithful P. A. system, the Chorus just may have never made it through the year.

Drama Club

It's performance that counts

Hurry up in the john!!

Drama Club opened its season on December 6 and 8 with "Up the Down Staircase," a comedy written by Bel Kaufman. Miss Mimi Craynon directed the 25 member cast. Members designed and constructed props themselves, handled lighting, and learned a bit about acting as well. Jane McClary led the club as president assisted by vice-president Kim Call, treasurer, Cathy Allen, and secretary Robin Smith.

With a committee like this, can you imagine the decorations at the Cabaret?

With a leader like this, we can't go wrong.

Under the able supervision of Miss Mimi Craynon the "Frenchie" did their thing again this year. They repeated last year's popular "Cabaret" with its "authentic" French foods and entertainment including, of course, the ever popular Margot Chorus Line. This year the club added a new attraction to JHS's spring activities-- The Margot Film Festival. The club was lead by Beth Weis, President, Mike Dumey, vice-president, Betsy Hughes, secretary, Tara Thomas, historian, and Cheryl Carlton, treasurer.

A typical FHA meeting.

Wanna join us?

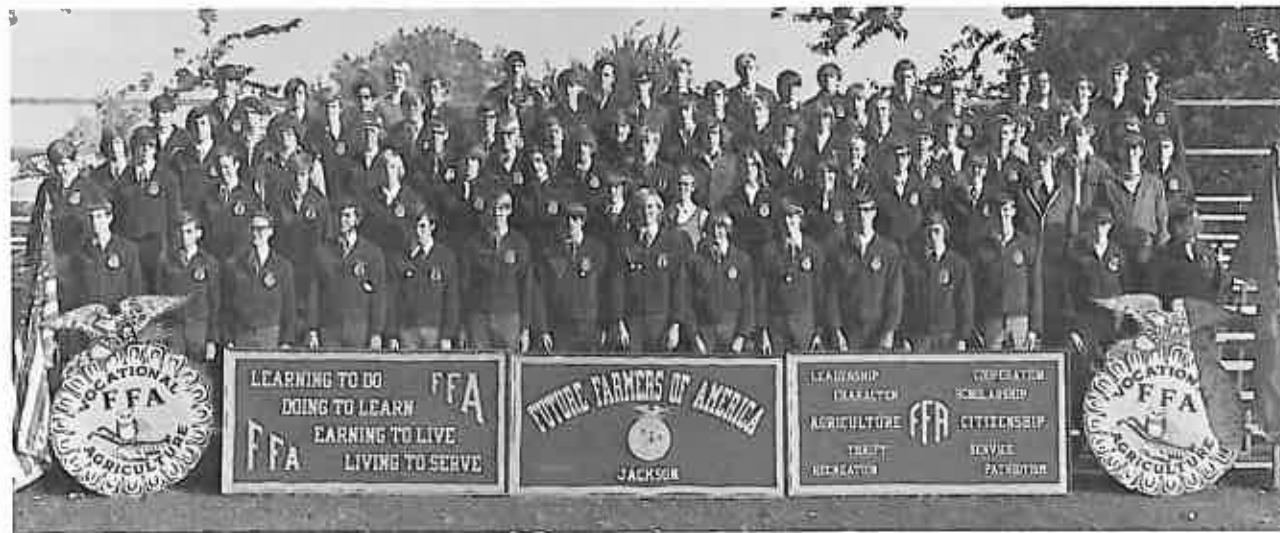

Pssst! Santa, you have... BAD BREATH!

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Shirley Penrod and president, Donna Williamson, the Future Homemakers of America, developed their interests as young homemakers. Among the activities the girls participated in were a fall weiner roast, a Sweetheart Dance, and a visit from Santa with an exchange of gifts. The girls participate in many discussions about cooking, management of the home, and personal improvement. These are the girls of today who will make the best homemakers of tomorrow.

And THESE are the homemakers of tomorrow?!?

Future farmers discussing over the matters of the meeting.

Many people have a pre-formed misconception of FFA, thinking that all they do is "study about the finer points of modern farming."

Not true!

The Future Farmers of America worked their way through a fun and fruitful year at JHS. The FFA held a Watermelon Bust, a Mulligan Stew Supper, a Christmas Dance, a Parent Night, and a Parent and Member Banquet. They sold calendars and candy bars and co-hosted the annual FFA-FHA Sweetheart Dance. Members also participated in the judging contest and the State and National Convention.

Mr. Davault consults one of the Future farmers.

Now these are the plans...

What's this, an invitation to the dance?

The Mighty Pres.

You mean she really thought I was cute?

Deca members busy at work.

Deca, sponsored by Mr. Bill Wallace, smoothed through another successful year. Officers, Mike Adams, president; Kevin Loos, vice-president; Sandy Rellergert, secretary; Max Harris, reporter; Connie Williams, treasurer; and Deanna Niemann, historian; governed Deca efficiently. With such activities as the Employer Appreciation Banquet, KJAS radio day, the state contest, and selling candy, members were kept busy. The 1973-74 Deca Club turned out to be the biggest yet, and the experience gained out-weighed the amount of members.

Typical day in Deca.

When El Presidenta talks (almost) everyone listens.

Never a dull moment in Deca.

Now Deanna, I'm going to explain it to you one more time.

Speech speaks out

Under the keen leadership of Mrs. Karen Kight, Speech Club members conquered many things this year. While at the District Speech Contest five of the eight qualified for final rounds, and three of the eight qualified for state participation. With storytelling, extemporaneous reading, radio speaking, dramatic readings, public speaking, poetry reading, duet acting and humorous readings the club never suffered one dull moment throughout the year.

"Tom, you are supposed to LISTEN to me when I talk to you."

Cross Country places third at District

Although many members of the Cross Country team were basketballers getting in shape, the team fared well during the season. Under the leadership of Coach Banks, and with the support of manager, Lawrence Nothdurft, the team ran away with first place at many meets. They finished the season with a third-place trophy at the District meet. The team also broke the school record, not once but twice in a single meet. Mike Bradford and John Strickert both finished the race inside the old record, with Mike breaking the 10-minute mark for the first time in JHS history.

You give it to me or I'm gonna take it!

I'm gonna get it!

The 1973-74 JHS varsity basketball team seemed to suffer from the lack of consistency this year. At times, the squad demonstrated a potent offense and a capable defense which was best seen on the home court. At home the Indians compiled a 6-1 won and loss mark. Unfortunately, however, they did not fare as well on the road. While winning four and losing eleven of their away games, the Indians had an overall record of 10-12. The leading individuals for the Indians were Kent Nelson, leading scorer and John Mize, leading rebounder for the season. Coach Jerry Suedekum's final remark was, "Attitude wise, this is the finest group of young men I have every coached."

Senior, Bruce Windeknecht, fights hard to defeat one of his many opponents.

Jackson was lead by such individuals as Jim Welker, who placed second in State Competition, and First in Regional, District, and Conference.

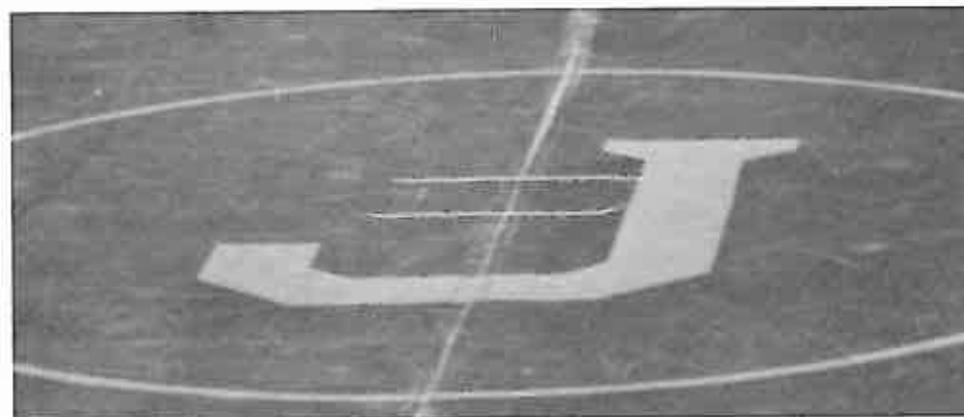

Happiness is... being Conference Champs two years in a row!!!

The Jackson Wrestling team, coached by Paul Webber and Bob Sink, completed another impressive wrestling season by finishing with a 10-1 dual meet record. During a year of rebuilding, the squad won their second consecutive Semo Conference Wrestling title along with their fourth District Championship and second Regional title in a row with six grapplers qualifying for State competition. John Goodson was undefeated and held a remarkable record of 27-0 this year as he went into State competition. Placing second for the Indians at the State meet was senior, Jim Welker while Junior, Butch Wright, pulled off a surprising third place title.

Wrestlers; warming up.

If it's a question of whether J.H.S. has spirit or not, just look in on what's happening with these twelve girls. With sore throats, aching muscles, and stiff joints, the J.H.S. cheerleaders never failed to show up in cheering the Indians to victory.

When they weren't on the floor cheering, they spent their time filling the halls with posters, decorating goal posts, and maybe even cleaning up the guys' locker room!

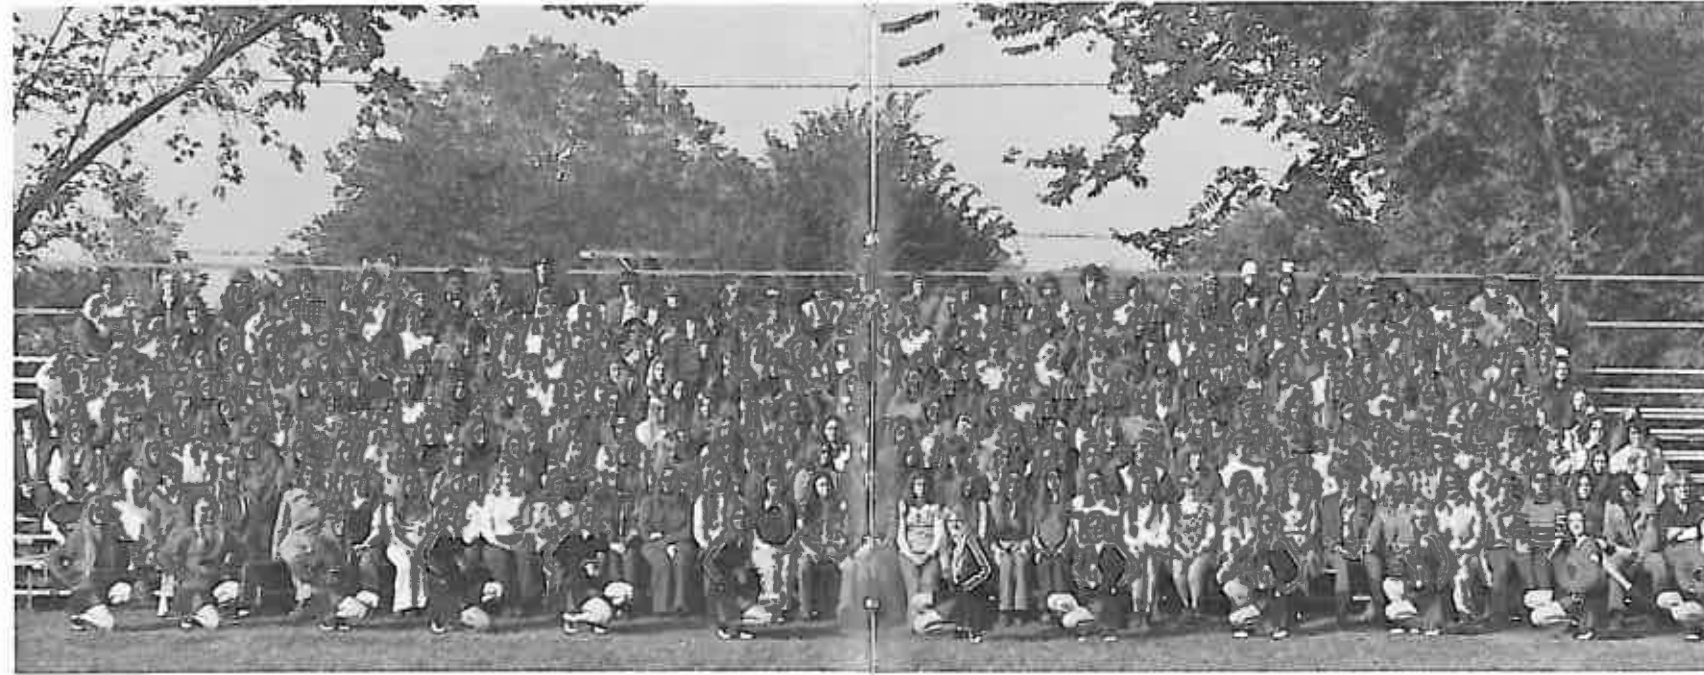

The girls were sponsored by Mrs. Patsy Johnson and were given superior leadership in their Captain, Cheryl Carlton, and their Co-Captain, Wilma Kim, who were always pushing the girls to do their best.

Most of the girls traveled to Jonesboro, Arkansas, this summer, where they attended the NCA Cheerleading Camp. Here the girls learned new techniques and cheers which they brought back to share with the entire student body.

These girls have worked hard to boost the spirit and morale of JHS this year, and though the duties are demanding and the hours long and hard, the rewards are great.

I knew he was good but not that good!!!

Slave sales and basketball games against the faculty are just a few of the things one associates with the '73-'74 J-Club, which was sponsored for the first time by Jerry Suedekum and Lloyd Banks. Led by John Goodson, president, the club voted Rick Ulrich their vice-president; Robert Meyer, treasurer; Brent Bollinger, secretary; and Rob Bishop, sergeant-at-arms. With such capable leaders, sponsors, and members, the 1973-'74 J-Club was definitely a success.

*Mr. Nelson
memories

In case you're wondering why these pictures aren't the same quality and clearness as many of the others, it is not an intentional slip-up on the photographer. In fact, the subject of these pictures IS the photographer, elusive, camera-shy devil that he is.

The Silver Arrow owes a deep debt (you may never know HOW deep!) of gratitude to this man, Mr. James Nelson, for the many, many hours the staff has dogged him for "just ONE more picture, please." The truth is, that "one more picture" often developed into about ten or twelve more pictures and no sooner had the flash dimmed than another frenzied editor screeched that he or she HAD to have "one more picture" to meet their deadline.

For all this trying year, the 1973-74 Silver Arrow Staff says over and over, "Thanks, Mr. N., for the mem'ries."
